RISTORI. - This queen of tragedy, hose advent a short time since created such a marked sensation in theatrical circles in this city, will visit us once more on Monday, appearing at the New Memphis Theatre. Mr. Chanfrau has nights in order that our citizens may not miss the last opportunity they will ever have of seeing the greatest tragedienne now on the face of the earth. On Monday night Ristori will appear as "Queen Elizabeth," and on Tuesday as "Mary Stuart." Seats were being taken quite rapidly this morning, and we would advise all who wish to avail themselves of the last chance of seeing this great artist, to visit the box office and secure their sents as early as possible.

HORRIBLE ACCIDENT.-A dreadful acident occurred at the depot of the Memphis and Charleston railroad yesterday afternoon, which resulted in the death of Patrick Sullivan. The deceased was in the employ of the company as a blacksmith, and while in the yard the switching engine suddenly backed up, knocking him down, and before the locomotive could be stopped he was literally crushed to death. This is to certify that I was discharged from the army with Chronic Diarrhon, and have been cured be Dr. Marviel e Pilis.

New York, April 7, 1855.
The following is an interesting case of a man employed in an Iron Foundry, who, in pouring melted iron into a finsk that was damp and wet caused an explosion. The melted iron was thrown around and on him in a perfect shower, and he was burnt dreadfully. The following certificate was given to me by him about eight weeks after the accident:

My name is Jacob Hardy; I am an iron founder: I was badly burnt by hot from in November last; my burns healed but I had a running sore on my leg that would not heal; I tried Magriel's Salve, and it cured me in a few weeks. This is all true, and any body can now see me at Jackson's Iron Works, Second Avenue.

MAGGIEL'S PILLS AND SALVE are almost universal in their effects, and a cure can be almost always guaranteed. FOR BILLIOUS DISEASES nothing can be more productive of cure than these Pills. Their almost magic influence is felt at once; and the usual concomitants of this most distracting disease are removed. These remedies are made from the purest VEGETABLE COMPOUNDS. They will not harm the most delicate female, and can be given with good effect in prescribed disease to the youngest babe. FOR CUTAN HOUS DISORDERS and all eruptions of the skin the SALVE is most invaluable. It does not heal externally alone, but penetrates with the most searching effects to the very root of the evil.
